THE MEXICAN WAR.

FORTIFYING PANAMA.

[Reuter's Service To The "Telegraph"]

London, Received April 29.

Reuter's correspondent at Albuquerque says the reported incarceration of General Carranza by General Villa is not true.

The Panama Canal zone has been placed on a war footing. Coast Artillery are being distributed between the fortifications on the Atlantic and the Pacific ends.

Reuter's correspondent at Washington says Infantry, Cavalry, and Artillery have been ordered from Brownsville to protect the border.

Mr. O'Shaughnessy, Mr. O'Shaughnessy, the American Charge d'Affaires at Mexico City, has arrived at Vera Cruz.

Americans Arrested. Seven Americans have been arrested at Tierra Blanca. It is stated that the Federals will probably execute four.

Mr. Bryan has notified Sir C. Spring-Rice, the British Ambassador, of the reported arrest of a British subject at Orizaba, one of a score of foreigners who were arrested, of whom the remaining 19 are Americans. Mr. Bryan says that prisoners have not been executed. The Brazilian Consulate there had been appealed to to secure their release.

Mob Law.

Reuter's correspondent at Vera Cruz says a local newspaper states that four Americans were killed by mobs in Mexico City. Three victims were taken off street cars and killed in the streets, and a fourth was killed in the Y.M.C.A. building by members of a baseball team to which he belonged. The statement is not yet confirmed.

Japan's Attitude.

Reuter's correspondent at Tokyo says the Premier authorizes Reuter to say that Japan has no intention whatever to utilize the present Mexican trouble to secure a settlement of the Californian difficulty.

Speedy Action Urged.

It is announced in Washington that no further offensive operations in Mexico are at present contemplated. Congressmen and newspapers are urging the Government to more speedy action, considering that the plan of awaiting retaliatory developments at Vera Cruz will be likely to lead to international complications.

Mediation Offered.

The Brazilian Ambassador and the Argentine and Chilean Ministers have tendered the good offices of their Government to President Wilson toward an amicable solution of the Mexican problem. The President has accepted the offer.

Generals Carranza and Villa have also offered to mediate.

Argentine Attitude.

Reuter's correspondent at Buenos Aires says the Press is unanimous in condemning the American action in Mexico.

Reuter's correspondent at Monte Video says students are arranging for an anti-American demonstration.

Battle in Progress.

Reuter's correspondent at Vera Cruz says fighting is in progress between the Rebels and the Federals at Tampico. About 1,185 refugees have quitted the town.

Mexican Aggression.

Reuter's correspondent at Nogales, Arizona, says a band of Mexicans is raiding Southern Arizona, pillaging, and firing on Americans.

REFUGEES.

[Reuter's Service To The "Telegraph"]

London, Received April 29.

About 400 more foreigners, including 50 Americans, have arrived at Vera Cruz from Mexico City.

An Exchange.

Reuter's correspondent at Vera Cruz states that the American Consul has sent a trainload of Mexican refugees to be exchanged for American "hostages."

The Consul has heard that General Maas has shot three conspirators and ordered seven others to be executed.

Martial Law.

London, Received April 27. Reuter's correspondent at Vera Cruz states that Admiral Fletcher has declared martial law. He has issued a notification that disorder will be promptly and severely punished. All people carrying arms without permission will be shot. The city is quiet.

A Misunderstanding.

Reuter's correspondent at Washington states that a statement has been issued by the State Department which indicates that the detention of the Americans was due to a "misunderstanding in Mexico City regarding the alleged detention at Vera Cruz of Mexicans who desire to go into the interior. Through the courtesy of the British Ambassador the misunderstanding has now been cleared up and it is anticipated that the Americans will now be allowed to proceed to the coast.

The statement is not yet confirmed.

Japan's Attitude.

Reuter's correspondent at Tokyo says the Premier authorizes Reuter to say that Japan has no intention whatever to utilize the present Mexican trouble to secure a settlement of the Californian difficulty.

ULSTER CRISIS.

70,000 RIFLES LANDED.

[Reuter's Service To The "Telegraph"]

London, Received April 29.

No less than 70,000 rifles were landed in Ulster on Friday night for the Volunteers. They were conveyed inland in 200 motor cars.

The mobilisation of Volunteers was in the Belfast district, and diverted the attention of the authorities while the steamer Fanny transferred the rifles to small craft.

The Ulsterites also announced that the Fanny also landed 5,000,000 cartridges. Lines of transport wagons all night long decoyed the police and Customs authorities to the various docks where they found the wagons contained only coal.

The Fanny passed through the Fleet at Lamlash.

People and Army.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, M.P., addressing a meeting at Newcastle, declared that in future the people would not be browbeaten by troops which would only have batons with which to maintain order. If Army Officers imagined that they were going to make their messes Tory Clubs their power must be broken.

Government Confident.

Sir John Simon, M.P., the Attorney-General, speaking at Birkenhead, said the Government anticipated the debate on the so-called "Ulster plot" with complacency and confidence. The Opposition must justify their instigation of the Army not to do its duty by telegraph.

Members of the crew of the Fanny told the Danes who went on board the steamer that they were bound for the Isle of Man and it is believed that the rifles are consigned to Ireland.

It was remarked that there were two English-speaking men on board the Fanny.

The captain of the lighter which arrived in tow informed the harbour-master that he had taken in his cargo in Hamburg.

GENERAL NEWS.

Narrow Escape.

Mr. Leslie Waller, St. Peterburg major of Messrs. Lever Brothers, has had a narrow escape from drowning while driving over the ice between Oranienbaum and Cronstadt, a distance of over five miles. He was with his assistant in a one-horse sleigh when the ice broke, and horse and sleigh were precipitated into the water. The driver was pitched on the ice. Mr. Waller and his companion saved themselves by clinging to the edge of the ice and then clambering on the frozen surface. The horse was drowned. This year the thaw in Northern Russia is much earlier than usual, and the Neva is now only in a half-frozen state.

Doctor's Suicide.

Dr. Guillotau, of the municipal service in Hanoi, and a Knight of the Legion of Honour, committed suicide at his residence in Hanoi about the beginning of this month by hanging himself from a flight of stairs, says the L'Avenir de Tonkin. The doctor, who had spent the whole of his career in the African Colonies and had only been a month in Hanoi, had taken to heart his approaching enforced retirement, and had previously spoken to his friends about it. A day before his death he was seen at the races and on the morning of the day of his death he attended to his duties as usual in the laboratory of the hospital. He went home at the usual hour and hanged himself, leaving no explanation. He was discovered by his house boy, who ran for assistance, and although no time was lost in bringing in medical aid, it came too late to be of any avail.

Bank of England Directors.

At a general court held at the Bank of England on March 31 and April 1, the following gentlemen were elected Governors and Directors of the Bank for the year ensuing, viz.:—Mr. Walter Gunliffe, Governor; Mr. Robert Lydston Newman, Deputy Governor; Directors—Messrs. G. G. Arbuthnot, H. Cosmo Orme Bonnor, Herbert Brooks, William M. Campbell, Brian Cokayne, Alfred Clayton Cole, Charles Hermann Goetzen, Edward Charles Granville, Sir Everard A. Hamble, Messrs. Lionel H. Hanbury, George W. Henderson, W. D. Hoare, Lord Hollenden, the Right Hon. F. H. Huth Jackson, Messrs. R. Eden Johnston, R. Molesworth Kindersley, Cecil Lubbock, Montagu Collet Norman, Lord Revelstoke, and Messrs. A. George Sandeman, Frank Cyril Tiarks, Henry A. Trotter, Vincent C. Vickers, and Alexander F. Wallace.

Kodak Film Dispute Settled.

A settlement just reached ends the long legal fight between the Eastman Kodak Company and the Ansco Company over the "Goodwin patent" of the pliable film. It is announced that the Eastman Company, which it was alleged used the invention, agrees to pay a "substantial" sum to the Ansco Company, which controls the patent; the figure is not stated, but it is generally supposed to amount to millions. The settlement obviates the necessity of the Eastman Kodak Company accounting to the Ansco Company for all films made during the past 15 years, as well as the former company's contemplated appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Art on the Cheek.

The wearing of coloured wigs and powdered hair is dying of inapition, and Parisian women threaten to give themselves up to another and even more barbarous eccentricity of fashion. Their latest craze is painting the face—not with the aid of the rouge pot, but by having a miniature work of art in the form of a bird, a beetle, a lizard, or whatever fancy demands, painted on the cheek.

Owl v. Express Train.

While the Scotch express from Euston was running at sixty miles an hour near Leighton, Cheshire, on February 10, the engine-driver suddenly heard a loud crash. The glass of the look-out window was smashed to atoms, and the fragments flew all over the roofplate, one piece cutting the driver under the eye. He felt something lying at his feet, and bending down found the body of a dead owl, which had apparently been dazzled by the lights of the train and had flown through the window.

WHITE WOLF'S PROCLAMATION.

Grandiloquent Appeal Against Yuan.

A special telegram from Sianfu to the Shenbao, published on April 19, reports the appearance of a proclamation by the White Wolf posted up at all prominent places in the capital city of Shensi. Its contents are fully translated as follows:

"Poh" (or White, the family name of the famous bandit), the Great Taishu of the Army for the Support of Han in China, hereby proclaims—

Allen Puler's Downfall.

For nearly three hundred years, our fathers and elders had been subject to the despotic rule of an alien race. They suffered horrible tortures and were denied redress and justice. By the law of nature, a change is bound to occur when any condition has reached the extreme point; so the extremity of their misery brought about the last revolution.

We were just feeling some solicitude at the downfall of the monarchy and the assertion of popular rights, and thinking that the godly offspring of China would henceforth enjoy liberty within the bounds of the law, and suffer no more injury and injustice at the hands of despotic tyrants. To our surprise, however, the traitor Yuan Shih-kai, with the cruel heart of a wolf, has dictated laws according to his own inclinations and is bent upon arrogating the role of an emperor, repelling and banishing the virtuous and the learned, welcoming and employing his own paws and jaws, putting the

If you have lost your appetite one of the big variety of dainty dishes at the ALEXANDRA CAFE is sure to tempt you.

If Disease Germs were Visible!

What panic-fear would arise if we could see, with the naked eye, what only the microscope shows us—namely, the germs which cause such dread infectious diseases as Cholera, Typhoid Fever, Diphtheria, Influenza, Consumption, and Scarlet Fever.

We should see millions of these disease germs floating in the air—lurking in public telephones, in public vehicles, in all crowded, stuffy places—drifting into the mouth and throat, and passing from one person to another.

We constantly inhale these germs without taking harm, because the healthy body has natural powers of destroying them. But if we are "run down" these powers may fail us. Then the germs grow and multiply rapidly in the mouth and throat, and lay us low with some infectious disease.

Against these invisible foes, Science has given us a sure defence in Formamint Tablets, which cleanse the mouth cavity from germ growths as easily and pleasantly as dirt is removed from the skin.

Avoid Infectious Diseases by Sucking

Wulffing's Formamint,

The Germ-killing Throat Tablet.

The habit of sucking a few of these palatable tablets every day keeps your mouth and throat in a thoroughly healthy state—protects you against the constant risks of infection—and cures such common ailments as Sore Throat, Poul Breath, and Mouth Troubles. Send the coupon to-day for a Free Booklet which tells you all about Formamint. It fully explains the germ theory of disease, and contains abundant medical and lay evidence of the value of Formamint.

The Physician-in-Charge of Turkish Hospitals under British auspices during the war, 1912-13, writes: "I would like you to know that during the war in Turkey I had a few of your bottles of Formamint always in my pocket, and when engaged with cholera cases, invariably kept sucking the tablets."

Here we had to deal with numbers of Gangrene cases, and the medical assistants suffered with septic throats. I invariably made them suck Formamint, and with great benefit. We are all aware by them, and I am personally grateful to you."

When Wulffing Formamint, opened, Wulffing Formamint, is the only genuine kind. There are many imitations of Formamint on the market which have the same composition and properties. Wulffing's Formamint is a new chemist's work which is manufactured by a fully protected process.

Formamint is sold by all Chemists, in bottles of 50 tablets.

is now restored, yet if the traitor Yuan were allowed to have everything his own way without our timely support being given, our country would soon tumble down and what would be the use of having our people then?

An Appeal to Shensi.

As every citizen should be responsible for the welfare of his own country, can you, the people of Shensi, who have been long famous for bravery and patriotism, witness the ardent scoundrel usurping the power of government, and the numerous murderers crowding about the Court, the sure ruin of our fine country and the ultimate extinction of our Han Race, with composure and indifference, and refuse to stretch out your hands to the rescue? I, Peh Lang, by the grace of the spirit of Huangti in Heaven, have been victorious wherever I go since I raised our patriotic standard. At present, my army has penetrated Shensi, all large towns and strongholds having shown submission at my approach. Although this may be due to the bravery and prowess of my army, yet it cannot be gainsaid that the people's despair under tyrannical government and the troops' unwillingness to fight for such a government have also contributed to my success.

Having now crossed the Mount

Obiung, passed the valley Tagu, and made a military demonstration at Hsianning and Chang'an, I hereby assure you that on the day on which the city (Sianfu) is taken, nothing is more worthy of your consideration than the welfare of your eyes.

The trouble that to-day is small and easily

WHITE WOLF'S PROCLAMATION.

A translation of a proclamation issued by "White Wolf" appears on page 3 of this issue and is of the kind with which we were made familiar during the rebellion of a few months ago. As before, President Yuan is roundly denounced as a traitor who is "bent on arrogating the power of an emperor," and so forth. There are the same old protestations that the writer's heart is "rent with pain," and his head is "aching with indignation," and that the men under him are heroes and patriots who have risen with the determination to save the lives of the people. This reads interestingly, coming from a leader who has pillaged four provinces and whose troops have been guilty of unspeakable outrages. Anything more cynical than talk-of peace by a man whose troops have burned and murdered and looted, who have ravished women in the open street and have left in their trail towns and villages desolated, cannot well be imagined.

Meanwhile it may be remarked that the bandit leader has been somewhat less active of late. The government troops, it may be presumed, have made him more careful than before. Quite recently the Times rather sweepingly stated that the operations of "White Wolf," was a "sign of the failure of Yuan Shih-kai's administration, which must create serious forebodings for the future of China and cannot fail to influence unfavourably the second loan, since the President appears incapable of suppressing the devestation of the Provinces near the capital." This is vigorous language and is hardly justified by the facts. It is true that the Chinese Government has not so promptly scattered "White Wolf's" forces as could have been wished, but it is not quite so easy a matter as it might seem to defeat, once and for all, a brigand who indulges in guerrilla warfare.

Only the other day, too, a special telegram to our columns stated that the campaign was handicapped from lack of funds. There need be no doubt of the truth of that statement. In every direction the government is handicapped by want of money, due to the trifling sums, when any, remitted by the provinces. The rebellion last year showed that President Yuan could handle a difficult situation with courage and strength, and he is not entirely to blame for the seeming apathy in crippling this leader of revolt. It is to be hoped however, that the troops now closing round the rebels—if they deserve a better name than brigands—will before long soundly defeat him. The longer he keeps on defying the Government the more likely is his example to be copied by others. That, indeed, is the chief danger.

TENNIS FINALS.

The growing interest which is being manifested in lawn tennis warrants the view that better facilities should be arranged for spectators desirous of witnessing the finals on the Hongkong Cricket Club ground. As it is, a few seats and forms are provided, but these are not nearly sufficient to accommodate the large crowds which assemble. The result is that by far the greater number have to be content with standing room; not only is this tiresome, but the crush makes it impossible for onlookers to closely follow the play. It often happens, too, that ladies who arrive a few minutes before or after the time of commencement are unable to find seats.

A SUGGESTION.

There is a further point, however, that in the absence of protection from the sun, those spectators who take up positions on the western side of the ground are subjected to considerable discomfort through the rays of the sun beating down on their backs. All this could very well be obviated if it were arranged that the several finals should take place on successive evenings during one week, and some sort of temporary, covered bamboo stand erected for the convenience of spectators. The cost, which should not be great, could easily be met by making a charge of ten or twenty cents for those who desire to be comfortably seated. In fact, such a scheme might even bring a little money into the coffers of the Club. The idea is at any rate worth considering for next year's tournaments.

HONGKONG SPORTING RECORDS.

CHAMPIONSHIP TENNIS.

S. E. Green Easily Wins in the Final.

By defeating J. B. Penman by three straight sets in the final of the Lawn Tennis Singles Championship in connection with the H.K.O.C., S. E. Green maintained the fine form he has been consistently showing this season. The match took place on Saturday and drew a large crowd of spectators to the Cricket Ground. Lieut. Beattie was in the umpire's chair. It was generally thought that Green would secure the verdict, though most of the onlookers were surprised at the margin by which victory was attained—three sets to love and 18 games to 5. In truth the latter put up a better fight than the score suggests, and play all through was of a good standard. There could be no mistaking Green's all-round superiority, though, for in all departments of the game he excelled over his opponent. The winner played the Harlech Road, two along the Pokfulum Valley, which was beaten by a large party.

A party amongst whom were Capt. Edye, Mr. Moxon, Mr. H. A. Siebs, Mr. Hordern and Mr. Norrington, went out with twenty-seven soldiers on Saturday afternoon from the Hongkong Hotel to the Dairy Farm and thence into the Pokfulum Valley. Two shots were fired along the Harlech Road, while Mr. Norrington accompanied the beaters through the undergrowth. An extraordinarily hard day's work was put in and the valley thoroughly beaten but no traces of the animal were found.

The course was Lyemun Beacon (s), Mark Boat (s) and Channel Rocks (e) a distance of about 3 miles.

Other Matches.

Another match which attracted considerable attention was the tie in the third round of the Professional Pairs between Messrs. H. A. Nisbet and H. R. Phillips and Major Samboorne Palmer and Lieut. White. Some excellent tennis was seen and in the end victory went to the civilians by two sets to one—6-3, 2-6, 6-2. The winners deserved their victory, which was mainly due to their superior and more accurate placing.

C.Y.C CLOSING CRUISE

presenting the prizes, and on behalf of the Club he personally thanked her very much indeed for coming. They knew Mrs. Clark so well and had seen her so often before, that anything he could say would be persuading. Probably Mrs. Clark would be going home before long; he heard Dr. Clark say he hoped that would happen (loud laughter)—that was a fauve pas on his part (laughter) but it was true when they came down to bed-rock as Dr. Clark was going as well (laughter). He hoped, however, they would see her many times again whenever she happened to be in the Colony, and that she would do that duty for them (applause). He called for cheers for Mrs. Clark, as he presented her with a beautiful bouquet in a silver holder.

Three cheers and a "tiger" were enthusiastically given.

Mrs. Clark then returned thanks in a racy speech. It was a pleasure to her to attend that function, she said, not really a duty—at least it was a pleasurable duty. She really did not feel a bit nervous nowadays in returning thanks. She used to stammer and stutter when they gave her a lovely bouquet. She hoped she would be able to keep it for a long time in remembrance unless someone came and took it away, as they did last time. When she returned she was relieved of a good deal of her treasures. She was only too glad to start over again and it was kind of them to help her in that way. When on the Empress of Asia which went on the rocks between here and Shanghai there was some looting and one of the things taken was a present she had received from the O.Y.C. Of course it would not do to dwell on the subject too long when one was speaking to nautical people and what they were likely to say was " Didn't you lose anything more than that?" (laughter). She did not want to be relieved of them again (laughter). If she had a ship called Titanic she would change the name as she would feel so superstitious. The cruise had again been blessed with the most wonderful weather. They had only two occasions upon which it rained for the opening and closing cruises, and it was rather a curious coincidence that the commodore was in England. They (Dr. and Mrs. Clark) were in Saigon at the opening cruise last year, but according to a Hongkong newspaper Commodore Clark presented the prizes in his "usual affable manner" (loud laughter), and made a very nice speech. She had to congratulate them in having in Hongkong a gentleman whose voice could be so charmingly heard from such a distance (laughter and applause).

YACHT CAPSIZED.

Prompt Rescue Effected by Sampan People.

Mr. Kennett, manager of the saw mills at Mongkok, was out sailing yesterday in his boat with Mrs. Kennett, four friends and two Chinese boatmen. When off Tsimshatsui the craft was capsized by a sudden squall, and the occupants were thrown into the water.

Their plight was observed by the crew of a sampan who immediately hastened to their aid and rescued the whole party, help being also given by a launch belonging to the Dock Company which was in the vicinity.

It is said that if it had not been for the promptness of the sampan people it is doubtful whether the whole of the capsized passengers would have been saved.

Three Deserters Caught.

The s.s. Dairen Maru, 4,582 tons, owned by the Kishimoto Steamship Co., Dairen, returned to Yokohama recently from Newcastle, Australia. While in the Australian port on March 12 last, three of her sailors deserted and managed to hide themselves on board a foreign steamer bound for South America. The would-be stowaways were, however, arrested at the request of the Captain and restored to the Japanese steamer. Upon arrival at Yokohama, they were taken to the Marine Police Station and then sent to the District Court.

Freight Lowered.

The Freight Combination has lowered the steamer freight on pig iron per ton from Antwerp to the Far East from 19 shillings to 16 shillings and that on window-glass from 20s. 0d. to 18s. 3d., with a view to continuing the rate war with the Rickmers Company. The Rickmers Company intends to work the Company's Siberian service fortnightly instead of once every three weeks, as the case has hitherto been, and to include Kobe, Shanghai, and Hongkong in the list of ports of call in addition to Vladivostok, Dairen, Tsingtau, etc. At the same time, the Company will lower the freight on Beans, Bean Oats, Bean Oil, and seeds to be loaded at the above-mentioned ports by about 40 per cent.

THE TRUTH ABOUT RABIES.

[SPECIAL ARTICLE.]

"The man recovered of the bite, the dog was then dead."

These lines of Goldsmith's in his "Elegy on the Death of a Mad Dog" show that through the centuries there has been no disease more liable to faulty diagnosis than hydrophobia. Every form of fit or convulsion in a dog is attributed to rabies; which is just as reasonable as though we were to declare that all epileptics, lunatics and people liable to fits were suffering from hydrophobia. Professor S. well records that during one of the epizootics of rabies previous to the late Mr. Long's famous Muzzling Order, he was deputed to make a post-mortem examination of all the dogs destroyed by the London police. In half a year he examined 600 carcasses, all of which were supposed to have been mad, and amongst them he only found 25 showing the remotest suspicion of madness. We change our headgear when the hot weather comes; dogs, and especially young dogs, should suffer from headaches which make them sullen, or even give way to fits or convulsions. Hydrophobia is a nervous complaint and can be induced in human beings in an hysterical form through fear of the disease. It is therefore always a pity to stimulate in any way the superstitious panic which is wont to be engendered amongst the ignorant at the very mention of the words "Mad dog."

The disease is purely a contagious one and under no circumstances ever arises spontaneously either in animals or man. The incubative period varies from a week to three months after inoculation. The following paragraphs are in use at the Battersea Dogs' Home and are useful to dog owners at the present time:—

Primary Symptoms.

1. Loss of Appetite.—If unaccountable, watch the animal closely.

2. Attack.—Timid dogs become fearless, and snap and bite large and small dogs without provocation. As a rule, there is no "fight" but merely a "snap," and this often preceded by a lick, from the rabid dog. Even his companion the cat is liable to be attacked.

3. Change of Disposition.—Cheerful dogs become morose and sullen; quiet ones become restless, and the good-tempered ones become quarrelsome. A disposition to hide in dark corners.

4. Bark.—Very characteristic—short, dismal, hollow, half a bark and half a howl. This change should be readily noticeable, as the usual bark of the house or yard dog must be well known to the owner.

5. Eating Unnaturally.—Although as a rule refusing food, rabid dogs will devour filth, stones, straw, etc. Great disposition to gnaw kennel wood-work, hearth-rugs, table-cloths, legs of tables, chairs, etc.

6. Disposition to Wander.—A rabid dog has a great inclination to escape and wander. When any suspicious symptoms have been detected, he should be confined or securely obtained.

7. Water.—Rabid dogs have no fear of water. They will plunge their muzzles into water, and during the early stages of the disease they can drink freely.

8. The Jaw.—In dumb rabies so-called—the lower jaw, through paralysis, is dropped slightly, and the mouth is constantly open—with a fixed appearance.

It may be added that a rabid dog does not froth at the mouth. On the contrary, in a day or two the mouth and tongue become dry, parched and discoloured. Once a dog has developed rabies, the

CLAIM FOR DAMAGES.

Chinese Shipping Company Sued.

In the Supreme Court, this morning, before Mr. Justice Hazelton, the Kai Hing firm of Kwong Yuen Street, importers, sued the Sai Kong Hong Yip Steamship Company, for the sum of $3029.52 damages sustained by them through the failure of the defendants to deliver certain goods which the plaintiffs handed to them on February 6, for shipment by their steamship Kwong Hung, in Hongkong to the Yee Wo Sung firm at Wuchow in Kwangsi Province, such goods consisting of three cases of Loxley's white lisle thread shirts.

Mr. R. C. Faithfull appeared for the plaintiffs and Mr. Otto Kong-sing, appeared for the defendants.

Mr. Faithfull said the amount claimed by the plaintiffs was for certain goods shipped on board a steamship of the defendant company. In the case they did not claim any special damages for loss of trade or anything like that, but the actual amount which they paid for the goods. These goods were purchased by the plaintiff, consisting of three cases of white lisle thread shirts, from Messrs. Loxley and Company, and the amount they paid was $322.21. The remainder of the claim represented a compradore's commission and ecclio and sampian hire. The plaintiff's case was this. These goods with other goods were taken from the Kowloon godowns by coolies to the Praya, the vessel being berthed opposite the Harbour Office. Unfortunately he could not call the man who took the goods and got the receipt because he was in the country. He did not think that that was material, however, as they had the chop.

Mr. Otto Kong-sing:—I think it is material.

Mr. Faithfull said there was one more fact in the case. If they had not got the goods they could not have charged the bill. The defendant firm made out a bill but the plaintiffs' consignees never received the goods. He did not know if any information had been given to the police—he saw a policeman in Court—that goods were stolen. He did not know anything about that.

His Lordship:—The defence is, you never received these goods? Mr. Otto Kong-sing:—Never received them on board.

Mr. Faithfull said they had the bill with the chop as to receiving them on board and the chop of the people in Wuchow saying they were on board. If people were going to be so premature as to make out a receipt for goods before they arrived he did not think any business could be done at all.

Mr. Otto Kong-sing said the whole thing was a mistake. They received the other three consignments and the chop was in reference to them. They had not received the goods for which the present claim was made.

disease always terminates fatally within eight days, sometimes by the fourth or fifth day, especially in the dumb form. Before the end, the dog becomes paralysed and finally unconscious, with heavy stuporous breathing. So if you think your dog has developed rabies and have anywhere to pen him up so that he cannot possibly bite any person or animal, you will not be kept in doubt for much longer than a week. As a rule a rabid dog does not bite human beings unless interfered with; but snaps at animals. If your dog is destroyed, the only to do certain that he was suffering from rabies (i.e. unless the dog has been confined and the disease allowed to take its course) is to get a physician inoculate a rabbit or guinea-pig with portions of your dog's nervous system. Diagnosis otherwise performed may be wrong.

It may be added that a rabid dog does not froth at the mouth. On the contrary, in a day or two the mouth and tongue become dry, parched and discoloured. Once a dog has developed rabies, the (3.) (4.) That the liquidator be authorised to obtain advances from Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co., Ltd., of any money requisite upon such terms as he thinks fit.

To Pay Official Call on His Excellency.

Lung Kan-kwang, brother of General Lung Chai-kwang, Tuuh of Kwangtung, is to pay an official call on His Excellency the Governor on Thursday next. He holds the position of Military Commander at Canton and is to make the visit to Hongkong on behalf of the Tuuh. He will arrive on a gunboat and there will probably be an official landing.

Members of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce are arranging to give the visiting official a reception.

TRADE MARKS.

Alleged Infringement of Merchant's Labels.

At the Police Court, this morning, before Mr. Melbourne, Chin Yuk with an alias, was charged by Detective Sergeant Wills with being in possession of 100,000 spurious labels, infringements of the trade mark of the Wing Lee Wei wine and spirit firm, Bonham Strand West. He came on board the Tai Shan, from Macao, having obtained the labels in Canton, it was alleged.

Mr. Hind (Mr. G. K. Hall Bruton) prosecuted and said that he understood that the defendant pleaded guilty.

His Worship said that he understood that he pleaded guilty to being in possession of the labels only, but he denied that he was aware they were spurious labels. He thought the defendant had put up a very good defence.

Mr. Hind said he thought from what he said this morning, he was in possession of them and the real question was whether that amounted to a crime or not. He was not absolutely certain, as it depended upon the construction of the section. He submitted that on that section when he was asked to print 100,000 labels for a person whose business was such as would require 100,000 labels and to deliver them in the peculiar way that he was asked to deliver them, he should have taken precautions that there was nothing wrong. From the peculiar way in which he was asked to deliver them he should have known that there was something wrong with the transaction. Had it been a proper transaction the defendant must have known that those labels would have to be delivered at the shop and not in the peculiar way he had been asked to deliver them. That clearly showed he had not taken reasonable precautions to see that the order was given on behalf of the right owners of the mark. He had not made any enquiries to find out whether that was so or not. Under those circumstances he thought there must be a conviction. The defendant did not even know the name of the man who ordered the labels, neither did he know the man's address. He submitted that in a transaction of this nature, the fact that he had not procured the man's name or address—nor absence of reasonable precaution entirely disentitled the defendant to the benefit of the defence he had put forward.

Complainant denied giving permission for the labels in question to be printed. Defendant was fined $100.

FOOTBALL.

United Services Football League.

The second Annual General Meeting of the United Services League will be held in the Royal Artillery Theatre, Victoria Barracks, on Wednesday.

Each team in membership during the past season may send two delegates, and the following business will be transacted:—

- (a) Minutes of last Annual General Meeting read and confirmed.
- (b) Hon. Secretary's Report and Balance Sheet adopted.
- (c) Election of officials:—
1. Chairman.
2. Vice-Chairman.
3. Hon. Secretary and Treasurer, and Asst. Hon. Secy.
- (d) Alteration of rules.
- (e) Election of Emergency Committee.
- (f) Other business.—Election of two auditors, etc.

Club Secretaries, says the notice convening the meeting, are earnestly requested not to treat this in a "Jeske" spirit as probably on this meeting depends the success or otherwise of the league next season and "although Club secretaries of the past season may not be taking part next season their successors and those coming out from Home will no doubt be keenly interested. Will you therefore kindly have your two representatives present with any suggestions your Club may wish to put forward."

A HAUL OF DEEDS.

Chinese Alleged to have Converted them to His own Use.

At the Police Court this afternoon, Ma Kun-tin was charged by Detective Sergeant Wills with converting to his own use the sum of $200 the property of Ma Kat-cho and also with converting to his own use 52 promissory notes, 70 documents of title to land and property, 2 account books, 3 partnership agreements, the property of Ma Kat-cho, on September 20, 1913.

Mr. J. H. Gardiner appeared for the prosecution and Mr. Stokes, of Messrs. Deacon, Locker, Deacon and Harston, defended.

Mr. Gardiner said the complainant who was carrying on business in this Colony was a native of Hoi Fung in China, where he was until the beginning of last year. He carried on business with his nine brothers as moneylenders, investors of their own money, their father apparently leaving them his business at Hoi Fung. They had also another branch in another village, and they loaned money for interest to the villagers and gentry in the district. In many cases they took as security title deeds for paddy fields and property. Complainant in the beginning of last year, finding there was a big family and there was not sufficient for him to do, came to Hongkong. During the trouble in China last May it was thought advisable to remove all the security deeds to Hongkong. The trouble subsiding, the brothers in the country asked complainant who had the custody of the deeds to return them. He gave the deeds and $200 in subsidiary coin to the defendant who was about to make a journey to Hoi Fung, for the purpose of handing them over to the other brothers. Defendant converted the deeds into his own use, obtaining money on them, and kept the $200.

The case was proceeding as we went to press.

THE VOYAGE OF THE PENGUIN.

One of the minor results of recent Antarctic exploration has been an immense increase in popularity of penguins, those "little gentlemen in black coats and white silk waistcoats," who, some explorers have said, are the one thing in the Antarctic worth going all the way to see. Human popularity is a dangerous thing for any wild creature, and we hear sad tales of the massacre of the birds by successive expeditions both for purposes of food and in mere wantonness. Yet everybody who sees them in their homes falls more or less in love with them. Dr. G. Murray Levick, zoologist to the British Antarctic Expedition of 1910-13, shows in his book, "Antarctic Penguins (Heinemann, 6s. net), that he is no exception, and he has given us one of the most sympathetic studies of the social habits of the bird, as well as the fullest, yet published.

In some details he differs from other observers, but in the main the picture of the Adelie (for it is of this species that Dr. Levick chiefly speaks) is, if much amplified, that with which we are already growing familiar—with the extraordinary development and limitation of their instincts in harmony with their environment, the curiously human tricks which they have of playing games and drilling just like men, the well-ordered life in the rookeries, and the extreme amiability and inquiring fearlessness of their attitude towards man. We have pictures of the mating habits and domestic quarrels of the birds, of the long fasts which it entails, of their treatment of their young, and of their modes of travelling, so quaintly laborious on land and so amazingly swift and graceful in the water; though Dr. Levick has no such extraordinary feat to report as that which Sir Ernest Shackleton witnessed when he saw a penguin make a "sheer vertical leap" of twelve feet from the water to the ledge above. The highest leap which Dr. Levick measured was exactly five feet from the surface of the water; but in making such a jump the bird would cover a distance of perhaps ten feet in breadth. An interesting point is raised in connection with the migratory instinct. Penguins make their way not only for journeys of some hundreds of miles over the ice, where there might perhaps be landmarks to guide them, but for even greater distances from the open sea, where guiding signs of any kind, beyond those in the heavens, are out of the question. The circling sense which leads them to their rookeries must obviously be something other than sight.
